RE: Invitation to Visit
 Defense Mapping Agency
 U.S. Naval Observatory
 Washington, DC
 Convenient Date

STAT

The Director of the Defense Mapping Agency Major General Robert F. Durkin has invited you to visit the Defense Mapping Agency for a briefing on recent advances they have made in automated and digital mapping. At present they are involved in developing faster systems, and in standardizing formats for the various members of the intelligence community to whom they provide critical support.

General Durkin's invitation is for a date of your convenience. You could expect to spend approximately 2 to 3 hours on a briefing and tour of the facility. General Heinz would accompany us. Recently, Secretary of Defense Carlucci visited the installation.

I recommend that you accept this invitation. While Defense Mapping is technically outside the Intelligence Community, it is a strong contributor to our needs. If you agree, a letter of acceptance is attached for your signature.

Honorable William H. Webster
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Judge Webster:

Given our strong ties to the intelligence community, I cordially invite you to visit the Defense Mapping Agency to see first hand some of the advances we are making in automated and digital mapping. These advances will enable us to better support the warfighting commanders and our other important customers, especially during contingency operations.

I welcome the opportunity to demonstrate our important work. My Executive Director, LTC Henry, 653-1478, is available to coordinate the details with your staff. We sincerely hope your schedule will permit a visit in the near future.

Sincerely,

ROBERT F. DURKIN
Major General, USAF
Director
